

THE DELRAY AFFAIR RULES OF PARTICIPATION (ART APPLICATION)

Please read carefully before submitting an application. If you are unable to meet our criteria, please do not apply.

RULES OF PARTICIPATION:

- * All work MUST be original and of exhibitor's own crafting. NO BUY/RESELL; A Buy/Sell item is any product that is purchased and sold without substantial modifications to the original product. For example, a shirt that is purchased and modified using a tie dye process or embellished with rhinestone decorations is not considered Buy/Sell. In addition, there are exceptions to the Buy/Sell rule at the Delray Affair for items that are not typically an art form or craft. These items include but are not limited to sunglasses, gladiolas and vendors who have been grandfathered into the event due to the uniqueness of the item and the vendor's long term relationship with the Delray Affair.
- * Prints and mechanical offset reproductions (e.g. calendars, note cards, stationary) are allowed, but intent to display them must be clearly stated on the application. Prints must be properly signed and numbered, and prints/reproductions may not comprise more than 25% of the display. (This restriction is not applicable to artwork produced via traditional printmaking techniques serigraphy, etching, lithography, etc.)
- * Quiet generators are permitted by petitioning the committee for special permission in advance. Power cords must be taped down.
- * No food products may be sold by exhibitors.
- * Booth structure and displays must not exceed limits of assigned space.
- * Exhibitors will cause no noise which can be heard beyond the perimeters of their own exhibitor space. This noise includes but is not limited to music (recorded or live demonstrations) or motivational tapes. Hawking of items is prohibited.
- * Artists may only exhibit work in the category in which they applied. Items that are misrepresentations of works presented at time of application are subject to immediate dismissal from the show.
- * Exhibitors may not share booth space unless they have submitted a joint application and have been accepted as such, nor may they sublet or apportion space to anyone else.
- * Artists MUST be present and have booth open for business during all hours of the 3-day event.
